RESURRECTION RUMORS BY FR. DICK

.....It's hard to believe that Easter is only four weeks from this weekend. This year our Easter celebration will be a little different in that we will not be having any catechumens or candidates coming into the Church. This happens periodically as the Spirit moves according to the Lord's timetable and not our own. Our RCIA Team is willing, waiting and wise, and will always be happy to meet with anyone considering the possibility of becoming Catholic. The phone lines and e-mails are always open!

..... In lieu of having a much shorter Easter Vigil I would like to extend a Special Invitation to this year's Easter Vigil to the folks who became Catholic at the Easter Vigil in the past. I also invite the many former candidates who became Catholic at one of our weekend Masses over the course of our parish history. I additionally invite all Resurrection members to participate in the Vigil, especially if you have never done so previously. This year will be great time to experience one of the most beautiful liturgies of the Church's Year in a shorter setting. Think about it!

.....The following ideas are directed to any and all Catholic Business Owners. The source of this concept is the ever-increasing strain of rising costs and benefits on our economic profitability. Basically the Catholic Business Owners (CBO) is an invitation for Catholic Business People to join together in a cooperative spirit to publicize and patronize each other's goods and services as well as encouraging the people of our parishes to do the same. We do this to a certain degree already by encouraging the readers of the Sonrise to patronize the advertisers who make this bulletin possible. Some of our current advertisers are Catholic and some are not. I am sincerely grateful to them for their ongoing support.

.....The CBO concept takes things one step further. The various CBO's would voluntarily join together in this network with one of the goals being to donate a small amount of their increased profit to their parishes and/or communities. The goal is to get as many parishes as possible in our contiguous communities to participate, e.g., Canton, Plymouth, Westland, Livonia, etc. For further information contact one of our Resurrection parishioner's, Matt Dame, at 734-416-1070 or catholicbusinessowners.com

Thought For The Week: "Why are you here?" the chaplain asked. The prisoner did retort, "I'm here because of untold wealth-Failure to file my tax report."
